

Hartman Hiker at Hartman Creek State Park

Use this to track your hikes towards the Hartman Hiker program. After completing the trails listed on this log, complete the information below and turn into the Hartman Creek State Park office to receive your pin!

Name: _____ City/State of Residence: _____ Date Finished _____

By signing here, I affirm I hiked all the trails logged below: _____

What trail is your favorite and why? _____

Trail Description (distances are approximate)	Date Hiked
Pope Lake Trail: Start and end at the Hartman Lake Beach parking lot. Take the short red trail to the north, then east, cautiously cross over Rural Rd to the green Pope Lake Hiking Trail. This is a loop with views of Pope and Marl Lakes. 1.4 miles
Dike Trail: This is an easy loop hike around Hartman Lake. Start and end either at the Hartman Lake Beach parking lot, or the Amphitheater parking lot. The red trail on the map is asphalt and the green trail parallels the north side of the lake. 1.02 miles
Oak Ridge Trail (red trails): This is a loop trail which could be accessed from the Allen Lake parking lot, family campground, or W. Windfeldt Ln. parking area near the group campground entrance. Follow the red trails and pass by map boxes C, D, E, F, G, H, I and N. 2.2 miles
Oak Ridge Trail (green trails) and Ice Age Trail: This is a loop trail that can be best accessed from the parking area on W. Windfeldt Ln near the group campground entrance. Start on the red trail and go a short distance to the east to the Ice Age Trail, designated on the trail map as a heavy yellow line. Head north on the Ice Age Trail to where it intersects with the red trail near map box E. This is a beautiful new trail with interesting geological features. Head back south on the green trail, passing map box L, K, J and G and return back to the start. 1.5 miles
Deer Path Trail: Start and end at the parking area for Allen Lake. This loop trail is designated by a short red section on the map and the green loop that goes around Allen Lake. Check out the fishing pier! 1 mile
Ice Age Trail & Windfeldt Trail: This trail can best be accessed from the parking area on W. Windfeldt Ln near the group campground entrance. Using caution, walk east on the road to the Ice Age Trail, designated by the heavy yellow line on the trail map. Hike south on the Ice Age Trail all the way to the park boundary sign. Turn around and retrace your steps on the Ice Age Trail until it intersects with the red hiking trail. Head west on the red trail, crossing the bike trails several times, until it again connects with the Ice Age Trail. Retrace your steps, heading north back to the start. 2.8 miles
Windfeldt Trail System: Park in and start from the campground overflow parking/playfield lot on W. Windfeldt Ln. Follow the red trail to the south to the "T" intersection. Head west to map box #3. Go south and continue past High Point to the ""T" intersection. Hike east to another "T" intersection. Turn south and then follow the trail around the curve to the gate at the park boundary. Turn around and retrace your steps, heading north when you get back to the curve. Turn west on the Coach Road Trail. At the "T" intersection head north to the road. Carefully walk west on the road to return to the parking area you started from. 2.6 miles	